about client needs and constantly work to ensure its services and programme products meet or exceed client expectations.

UBS has a solid reputation resulting from hard work and committed excellence.

Clients view UBS as a company that can meet demanding schedules, help problem solve and provide competitive and quality hoisting and access products and services.

These traits, combined with an excellent reputation with clients and suppliers for providing superior service and products, results in numerous satisfied and repeat clients.

Testimonial.

Ballymore's contracts manager [on the Ontario Tower Project] Sean Gavin; 'For a prestigious development like the Ontario Tower we wanted to use the best system'.

'We were aware that the UBS system had been commissioned for several of the major contracts in the City like the Wharf and the 'Gherkin' so it seemed sensible to use their experience in high rise construction'.

'It's a very effective system, but more importantly we got what we wanted, efficiency.'
